Pot Luck 2/12/15

The rec hall was filled with hungry folks waiting for their table to be called so they could partake of the tables laden with Pot Luck dishes filled to the brim. A total of 46 diners ate their fill of chicken, meat loaf, meatballs, ham, mac n' cheese, corn casseroles, salads, pasta salads and ending with one of the many desserts that were brought in. We will do it again in two weeks on Feb 26th.

Bike to Breakfast 2/12/15

It was a cool start Thursday morning for the Bike to Breakfast bikers, but we warmed up nicely when we got to Rodies in Tarpon Springs. A total of 37 Bay Aire folks enjoyed a good breakfast. Thank you Alan for leading the 9:00AM group. Thank you Gene for your "Sag-Wagon" help.

Grills

The grills on the pavilion are for all to use. If you want to grill a couple steaks or burgers or some chicken, feel free to use the grill. Just remember to clean it up after you finish and to cover it up to keep it clean for the next user.

Golf Prattle

Another beautiful golf day with 10 groups on the course again.

This week, Jack Lundgren, a former park resident and many times Park Golf Champion scored an eagle on Hole #9 – that's 2 on a par 4. He also had a low net of 66 – great playing, Jack!!

The leaderboard is really heating up.

Joe Dubois holds on to 1st with 20 points, Jim Brown has 19, Dennis Boltz and Billy Hughes are tied for third with 18, Dave Veenhuis and Shirley Wallace are tied for fourth with 17. Dave Veenhuis and Mike Sabol have taken points two weeks in a row and are moving up the board quickly. Good luck everyone – just 4 weeks left.

Watch the golf board for the banquet sign-up sheet which will be going up this week.
