Presentation – Sophal Stagg

Wednesday March 4th, - 7:00PM (following the pizza party)

Last year, the book club read the book “Hear me Now : Tragedy in Cambodia by Sophal Leng Stagg. We were fortunate to have Sophal come to speak to us one evening about her experiences as a child under the brutal regime of the Khmer Rouge. She also talked to us about the Southeast Asian Children’s Mercy Fund that she and her husband set up. Their goal is to raise awareness of the genocide as well as collect funds for children in Cambodia.

She returned to Cambodia again this May and has a new DVD to show us of her experiences and an update on the war trials in Cambodia. She will also bring copies of her book and goods made by the Cambodians which may be purchased to raise funds for her work. All park residents are welcome to attend and meet this truly remarkable woman.

Refreshments will be provided. For additional information, contact Shirley, Lot #141

Golf Prattle

Well, we had a rain shower as the last group started hole #1 and the sun finally shone on that same 6th group as they climbed the hill to hole #18. In between, we had cloud and wind. There were great sightings of the bald eagle and red tailed hawk that frequent the course and also some strange creatures in the pond at #16 (golf ball divers). Jay Aldridge had a truly impressive game and scored first place points on the first golf day after he had established his handicap. Great game, Jay! A head cover for a 5 iron was picked up on the course and turned in at the Pro Shop. On the leaderboard we have a 1st place tie between Jim Brown, Billy Hughes and Shirley Wallace with 23 points, Joe Dubois remains in 2nd with 22, Dennis Boltz is in 3rd with 20 and Dave Veenhuis is in 4th with 19. Only 2 weeks remain to get enough points to play for the championship.

Time to make your move!!

If you haven't done so, please indicate on the sign-up sheet for the golf banquet whether you will be attending. The payment for the banquet of $28/person must be made no later than March 12th. We will be giving the number of attendees and the final payment to the caterer on that date. If you have any questions, please contact Dennis Boltz at lot # 41.
