March 6, 2015

To celebrate his 70th birthday in style, Jim and his 2 daughters rode their bicycles for 70 miles. Several bike friends also rode on and off with him. Congratulations to Jim on his milestone birthday and the achievement of his 70 mile ride.

Book Club

Sophie Stagg was our guest at book club this past week. Sophie is no stranger to us as she was here last year and made us all aware of her early life in Cambodia through her book "Hear Me Now". She brought us up to date on what her mission has been doing this past year in Cambodia. We will begin a program next year to aid Sophie with her giving to the children of Cambodia

Dart News March 3rd

Once again, Guy Ruel was on the winning team with Dave Humphrey as his partner. The team of Mary Phillip and John Dippold played very well and came in with a second place finish.

St. Patrick's Day

Is soon approaching and we are having a Bay Aire Pub Night on Tuesday, March 17th. For a $3.00 donation, you will get an Irish beverage, receive the "gift of eloquence", play darts and have a special guest entertainer. Tickets will be available from Peggy Aldridge, Lot 81 and Mary Anne Brentnell, Lot 53.

F.E.A.S.T.

We continue to collect food for FEAST at our Monday Bingo Games. One can of food or box of dried food gets you one extra bingo hard card. It does not have to be a food item, toiletries, personal hygiene products, hair care products and laundry products can also be donated. A total of 45 cans of food and 18 boxes of dried food were donated by the generous Bingo players this past Monday. We will continue to collect for FEAST through Easter. This is a park wide project not just bingo players.

Going Away

Plans for the 2015 Going Away Party March 20th and 21st are well underway. You may have been asked to lend a helping hand with the activities that will be taking place. Information will be posted and in next weeks newsletter.

Golf Prattle 3/4/2015

We had true Florida weather for golf this week – warm and muggy but with a breeze. Nine groups played and enjoyed the lovely conditions. Welcome back to Warren Scott. We have missed Warren to organize the groups and get them lined up each week. He must have herded cats in his early years!!

Congratulations to Roger Goodson and Don Pignitella who took their first points of the season. Ed Smith is also making a last minute charge to make the playoffs. Billy Hughes and Shirley Wallace are tied for first with 24 points, Jim Brown has 23, Joe Dubois has 22 and Dennis Boltz has 21. It's a really tight leader board and there are lots of folks who are lurking in the wings. Top four and ties play for the championship. Good Luck to everyone next week – last chance for points!!

For those who haven't done so, please sign-up for the banquet and bring your payment ($28/person) to Lot # 41. Final payment and total number of people attending will be submitted the 12th of March.
